San Diego has the highest percentage of veterans in the workforce in the country, is home to the largest concentration of military personnel and has scores of defense contractors. The San Diego Business Journal, in partnership with The Rosie Network, will celebrate and support local veteran entrepreneurs and military spouses with a new awards program and educational conference.

The conference will include panel discussions on

- Women – The Growing Face of Entrepreneurship
- Building Your Brand Identity
- Cybersecurity for Small Business
- and more

The conference is free to active duty, veterans and military spouses with military ID.
