For Consistently Outstanding Service

Adam Kogan Treiger, Esq.
Partner
Stowell, Zeilenga, Ruth, Vaughn & Treiger LLP
(Also Honored in the Attorney Category this Year)

Adam K. Treiger concentrates his practice on complex employment and business law counseling and litigation. His employment law practice focuses on litigation prevention and day-to-day employment law counseling, as well as on representing employer clients, including businesses, private schools and religious organizations. He helps guide these organizations through their respective legal issues and represents them regularly in federal and state court, administrative or arbitration settings, and in typical matters including claims arising out of wage and hour, discrimination, harassment and wrongful termination disputes. In addition, he handles a wide variety of business and licensing transactions including drafting and negotiating all types of business, licensing, and real estate agreements, forming corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, and handling mergers and sale/purchase agreements.

He is a frequent speaker on employment law, business law and litigation issues and has authored numerous published articles on subjects pertaining to these specialties.

Trieger advises clients on all of these business issues. However, what really distinguishes him is the passion he puts behind his representation. He works tirelessly for his clients, not only because he genuinely cares, but also because he is so dedicated to the law as an effective vehicle for resolving civil disputes.

"Adam has been my corporate and personal attorney for more than a decade now, and fortunately we have become friends as well. I thoroughly trust his judgment, knowledge and most importantly, his character. I consistently, zealously refer him to friends, clients and colleagues who can benefit from his wise counsel, and we all benefit. One of the things I admire most about Adam is his fiduciary standard of always putting the client’s interests before his own, even when the end result may be the client not engaging him for his services. He has helped me with employment law issues, general business and real estate matters. In a way, having Adam on my team is a terrific insurance policy in navigating business risks."

Douglas H. Ridley, Esq.
Principal
Law Offices of Douglas H. Ridley

Douglas Ridley uses his knowledge as a former prosecutor to help people in the criminal courts get their lives back on track. As the founder and managing partner of The Law Offices of Douglas H. Ridley, he serves and defends clients in Ventura and Los Angeles counties.

Ridley graduated from Pepperdine University School of Law in 1998 with a focus on Trial Advocacy, earning awards for his exceptional trial skills. Ridley became a Deputy District Attorney with Ventura County from 1999 through 2004, reviewing thousands of DUI cases along with working in the misdemeanor, felony, narcotics, and gang units. He spent the last three years of his career as a prosecutor in the special victims Sex Crimes Unit of the DA’s office, putting child molesters in prison for life.

Ridley left the DA’s office in 2004 and began work in private practice. Since 2009, he has focused on criminal defense, helping people who find themselves in the criminal justice system.

Perhaps Ridley’s best quality is the compassion he has for his clients. People who get caught up in the criminal justice system are facing the worst experience of their life. They are scared and completely unaware of the challenges facing them in the courts. In addition to the criminal courts, many charges like a DUI face additional licensing consequences that involve complicated administrative hearings. Ridley breaks down the procedures and presents a timeline to his clients for what they can expect on a case. He further gives them a realistic appraisal of their case, honestly assessing their chances and potential consequences.

“My son had done something really dumb. He got caught up with the wrong friends and broke into a house to steal some stuff to get money for alcohol. We were worried he was going to destroy the rest of his life. With the counsel of Mr. Ridley and the help of the court, we got my son out of the school he was in, away from his circle of friends, and helped him get on the right path. He is getting good grades and all this will be off his record once he turns 18. We are very grateful.” – Parent of Juvenile client: J.L., Simi Valley

“Redonna is a very insightful and sagacious banker. As the lead of a Global Fortune 200’s restructuring team previously, I have worked with many bankers in the past. It was very simple to work with banks when all materials and history is available. However, my rapidly growing low margin young company was considered premature and thus, we were turned away by many banks. Redonna was able to see our company’s potential. Her dedication and commitment to secure a loan for us despite a relatively longer process and smaller sum allowed me to expand a year earlier in this rapidly changing global market. Last but not least, despite her competence, Redonna has a humble, kind and genuine persona. I am more than honored to have Redonna as a trusted banker and friend.” – Billy Chen, Chief Executive Officer, B & M Global Trading

STEVE BROOKS
PRESIDENT
B & B PREMIER INSURANCE SOLUTIONS, INC

Steve Brooks is President of B & B Premier Insurance Solutions, Inc, a renowned independent insurance agency in Southern California. It is B & B provides coverage in the areas of property and casualty, including: personal insurance (auto, home, earthquake and umbrella coverage for jewelry, collectibles and artwork); as well as business/commercial insurance (general liability, workers compensation). Brooks is also one of the nation’s most recognized independent insurance agents, speaking frequently at conventions and colleges, while also regularly contributing articles to national and regional publications.

By 2009, after 25 years of success, Steve Brooks Insurance Services was one of the largest independent agencies in the Tri-County areas of Ventura, San Luis Obispo, and Santa Barbara, and Brooks was ready for the next step.

Eric Bossuk was the CEO of Tri County Insurance based in Calabasas, and he and Brooks were friendly competitors for years. They realized that joining forces made a lot of sense. The duo formalized their partnership in 2010, and the new company became B & B Premier Insurance Solutions. Today the company employs nearly 50 people and writes more than $70 Million in insurance each year, making it one of the largest independent agencies in the area. Despite this success, Brooks remains as personally dedicated to his clients as ever.

In addition to receiving certificates of Recognition from the California State Senate and Assembly, Brooks has received many awards including the Beverly Jordan Memorial Award for Achievement for Independent Insurance Agents in the San Fernando Valley, the L.A. County Board of Supervisors Committee Involvement Award, six SAFECO Insurance Awards of Excellence, and others.

“Steve Brooks has been my personal insurance broker for more than a decade. Steve cares about me and my family, as people. Steve does not care about making a commission on me. He cares about making my life safe and secure (and easier). Steve is passionate about getting me the best coverage at the best price, every time. He is also readily available to me whenever I need him, and he is generous with his advice in times of need. One recent example was after my wife had a small car accident while driving a rental car. Steve spent hours with us, the rental car company, and the body shop, to make sure that our out-of-pocket costs were very reasonable. Steve helped us through a situation with no financial reward to himself because that’s what Steve does — he helps his clients, no matter what.”

MAZIAR ESMAILBEIGI
CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER AND CO-FOUNDER
STEEL PEAK WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Maziar Esmailbeigi is Chief Investment Officer and Founding Partner with Steel Peak Wealth Management. He draws on his background as a former business owner and as a veteran financial advisor to benefit his clients as well as Steel Peak. Esmailbeigi uses his broad advisory skills to benefit both individual and business clients, and is well versed in helping business owners translate their success into liquidity events and the retirement that they envision. He attributes Steel Peak’s success to a deep understanding of its clients and providing the exacting solutions that they require and expect.

The best judge of a financial advisor’s impact on its clients is none other than the clients themselves. Esmailbeigi’s clients have consistently chosen him as their top advisor, not just for the competent advice he has to offer but also for his deep interest in their personal lives. A few years back, he received a call from the wife of one of his clients who told him in a broken voice that her husband had passed away. The widow asked for his assistance in organizing his remaining assets, declaring, “I would’ve wanted us to continue working with you.” Just a little while later, the wife also passed away, and, in the weeks that followed, their children reached out and told him they each wished to create a new financial plan portfolio with his help. This is just one multi-generational example of why his clients have chosen Steel Peak for the person-to-person relationship that he offers them.

“When I think of ‘why’ Maz would be a worthy candidate to receive this award, it comes down to three criteria. The first (obvious) criteria is trust. Do my wife and I trust him to guide us through our golden years? The second criteria is competence. In other words, can this person execute on our mutual agreed upon strategy and make the tough choices that deliver win-win results? The last criteria is that we feel he is all three criteria together is, does this person have integrity? We chose Maz because of his stellar reputation. In doing our homework, we found that his name speaks volumes about his integrity. I recently retired after 40 years with the same company, so it was important that my wife and I found a person whom we trusted to handle our Wealth Management portfolio. Maz is not only that person—we consider him part of our family!” – Philip Illions, Director, Supplier Manager, Avnet Electronic Marketing (retired)

Pell brings a fresh face to the wealth management industry and is known by those who have had the good fortune to work with her to be a professional that will “get it done” promptly, or find someone who will. She remains open-minded and looks to find new and innovative ways to solve problems of the modern retiree. Unlike some brokers that simply review their clients’ investments, Pell goes above and beyond, truly taking each client’s bigger picture into consideration so that she can bring plausible options and strategies to the table. With each client, she also reviews the pros and cons of every major financial decision so that each person she works with can carefully consider when to think about managing their money differently.

“I thought I was organized and diligent with my finances until I met Elizabeth Pell. She brings a fresh perspective to an otherwise dated industry. I walk into her office and she makes me feel like I am the only client in the world. She makes great effort to see where I am coming from. When I leave, I always feel like we are moving another step forward toward my financial goals. It is a great feeling. I have worked with a few financial advisors before, but she stands out in the crowd. I am so glad she runs the show, it shoulders some of the responsibility off of me. For the first time, in a long time, I don’t feel like a number. Her follow through on the promise of holistic wealth management always continues to surprise me. It is incredible all the things she is able to accomplish. She has my vote!” – Dr. Bebe Jacobson, Clinical Psychologist from the Los Angeles Police Department, serving on the SWAT Crisis Negotiation Team (Retired)
